From all other countries:

In addition to any other applicable rates and charges, the shipper shall be liable for payment of any charges imposed on the carrier by any marine terminal or other third party to cover security related costs.

Any costs imposed on the carrier by a terminal operator or any other party as a result of an origin port or country's participation in the container security initiative program ("CSI"), including but not limited to costs of inspection, drayage, stuffing, unstuffing or restuffing, are for the account of the cargo and shall be paid prior to release of the cargo to the consignee.

In addition to the charge imposed by the third party, carrier reserves the right to collect an administrative charge from shipper.

The pass-through under this rule is independent of, and in addition to, any security charge that may be imposed by the carrier under any other provision of this tariff or in any Service Contract.
